Samuel Hears God

There once was a boy named Samuel. When he was still very young his mother gave him to a high priest named Eli so that he could serve the Lord.

At the end of a long day of work, Samuel was sleeping in the temple when he heard a voice calling to him, "Samuel! Samuel!" "Here I am," he said. He got up and ran to his master, Eli. "Here I am, for you called me." But Eli was confused. "I did not call for you. Lie down again."

So Samuel went back to sleep. Then he heard the voice again say, "Samuel!" He got up quickly and ran back to Eli. "I did not call you. Go lie down again and get some sleep." Eli said.

Then he heard the voice a third time and came running to Eli once more. This time Eli realized what was happening. "Go, lie down; and if he calls you, you shall say 'Speak, LORD, your servant is listening.'" Samuel was in disbelief. Seeing or hearing God's voice was very uncommon. He went back to lie down.

"Samuel! Samuel!" said the voice of the Lord.

"Speak, for your servant is listening," the boy said in reply. Then the Lord spoke to young Samuel for the first time. It was the first of many times that the Lord God spoke to Samuel. Each time Samuel listened and sought to follow the Lord's instructions.

The bible is divided into 2 parts . The first part is called The Old Testament and is about the time before Jesus was born. The second part is called The New Testament and is about Jesus' birth and his life ,death and resurrection.

The Gospel each Sunday is from the New Testament but we also have a readings from the Old testament. This week we are looking at the story of Samuel, A prophet from the Old Testament.

The Old and New Testaments are made up of lots of book written by different people.
