The Parable of the two sons

Jesus was in Jerusalem, at the Temple, and speaking to the religious leaders in charge of the Temple. Jesus said "What do you think? There was a man who had two sons. He went to the first and said, "Son, go and work today in the vineyard." "I will not," he answered. Later he changed his mind and went. Then the father went to the other son and said the same thing. He answered, "I will, sir." However he did not go. Which son did what his father wanted? "

Matthew 21:28-30

Who do you think the father represents in the parable?

Who might the sons represent?

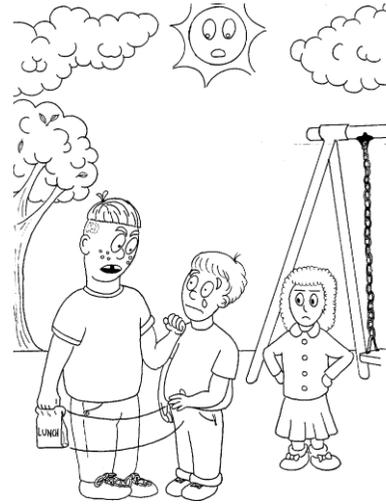

Have you ever acted like the first brother?

Have you ever acted like the second?

It's easy to say YES but you then must act on it.
 When we say YES to God we must show that we mean it in the things we do and say.

Your task this week

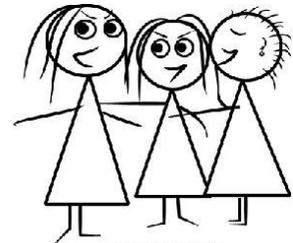

Draw a heart around the pictures that show we are saying YES to God then colour them in. Show this page to a grown up and tell them why you decided the pictures with hearts show that you are saying YES to God. The second brother said Yes but didn't act on it. The first brother said NO but then changed his mind and acted as if he had said YES.

Say The Apstoles Creed each night this week. Like the Apostles, this is what we believe and by believing this we are saying Yes to God. Make sure this week that you act on that YES in all you do and say.

I believe in God,
the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,

born of the Virgin Mary,

suffered under

Pontius Pilate,

was crucified,

died and was buried;

He descended into hell;

on the third day He rose again from the dead;

He ascended into heaven,

and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.

Amen.
