Here is your colouring page for Holy Trinity Sunday

Today is Holy Trinity Sunday – a week after Pentecost, so we have had the joy of the Holy Spirit arriving just after Jesus ascended to Heaven to be with God the Father. God is one person, with three parts. Father, Son and Holy Spirit. As one God, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are with us always. As one God, they love us and guide us throughout our lives. Different pictures help us to understand this. St Patrick used the image of the shamrock, others use a tree.

In the olden times, the ring could be placed on hot wax to make a seal to prove the document came from the Bishop or Pope. (4) Beeswax

Every time we attend Holy Mass, we say a Creed- a Creed describes what we believe as Catholic Christians. There are two Creeds, the Apostles' and the Nicene. Here is the Apostles' Creed- perhaps you might like to learn this over the next few weeks? In the Creed, you can find out about the Trinity: God the Father, Jesus Christ the Son of God, and the Holy Spirit.

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.
